

CHILD HEALTH

Vaccination

1 in every 3 Child is fully Immunised.

Urban Children (44%) more likely to be immunised than rural children (28%).

Mothers education highly influence immunisation rates.

Birth Weight

87% birth occurring in a Health Facility are weighted

Fever

1 in every 10 Child under 5 years of age have experience a fever.

Children living in urban areas are more likely to experience fever than rural children.

About 23% of children receive antibiotic drugs.

Diarrhoea

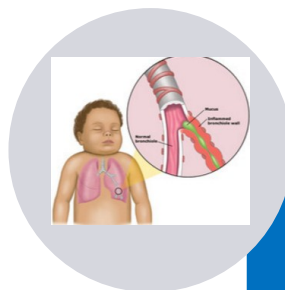

12% of Children under 5 years reported having diarrhoea.

Diarrhoea high in Children 6-11 months.

43% of children taken to health care provider and treated with ORS and recommended fluids.

Acute Respiratory Infection (ARI)

3% of Children under 5 years of age have shown symptoms of ARI.

Source: 2013 Vanuatu Demographic and Health Survey (VDHS)