Tourism in Vanuatu is seasonal, and it is difficult to analyse changes in international arrivals and country of residence by looking at the monthly number of arrivals. Figure 3 below, shows the total number of visitor arrivals and arrivals from Australia, New Zealand, New Caledonia and all other countries combined to show trends in arrivals, with the number of visitors based on an index value of 100 in January 2005. This index allows analysis over time of the real increases and decreases in international air arrivals.

The total air visitor arrivals index shows the overall increasing trend in October 2013 compared to October 2012, where index values increased by 9%. (Figure 3)
