PRESS RELEASE

To Whom It May Concern

Re: Delayed Release of March International Visitors Arrival (IVA) Statistics Report

In light of twin cyclone hazard events earlier this year, we regret to announce a delay in the release of the March International Visitors Arrival (IVA) statistics report. The release of the report has been affected due to power disruption after the twin cyclones which had a cascading effect on various aspects of our operations, including the scanning of arrival cards for electronic storage and usage.

We assure the public and stakeholders that our team at the Vanuatu Bureau of Statistics (VBoS) is diligently working to compile and analyse the March IVA data. Despite the challenges posed by the twin cyclones and their aftermath, we are committed to delivering the March report in due course.

Please also note that there is No Available data for cruise ship denoted as NA in this report, however we will include the data in our next releases.

We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience caused by this delay and appreciate your understanding in these exceptional circumstances.

Sincerely,

Mr KAP Calo Andry
Chief Statistician
